

39th ANNUAL INTERCOLLEGIATE WOODSMEN'S

April 19 & 20 1985
Sponsored by College of Forest Resources
University of Maine at Orono

EVENTS at MUD POND

Singles Canoeing- One person will canoe a slalom course for speed.

Doubles Canoeing- Two people will canoe a slalom course for speed.

Portage Canoeing- Two people will paddle and carry a canoe around a course for speed. This event is run as a relay with the canoe acting as the baton.

Orienteering- One person from each team will follow a given set of directions to an unknown point for speed and accuracy.

Chain Throw- One person from each team will coil a 200 link chain for speed and accuracy.

Team Hulp- Each team will throw 4 pieces of pulp between two sets of stakes till 48 pieces have been counted. This is also done for time.

Packboard- Each team will run a course carrying a sandbag and frying pan on a packboard for speed.

EVENTS BEHIND HILLTOP U.M.C

Pole Climb- One person from each team will climb a 30' pole for speed.

Vertical Chop- One person from each team will chop through an 8 x 8 cant held vertically for speed.

Axe Throw- One person from each team will throw an axe at a stationary target for accuracy.

Pulp Toss for Distance- One person from each team will throw a piece of pulp for distance.

Log Roll- Each team will roll a log between two stakes for time.

Crosscut- Each team will cut a set number of cookies from an 8 x 8 cant for speed.

Bowsaw- Each team will cut a set number of cookies from an 8 x 8 cant for speed, using a bowsaw.

Vertical Saw- Each team will cut 3 cookies from a vertically held popple bolt for speed.

Felling- Two people from each team will use a bowsaw and an axe to fell a pole for speed and accuracy.

Firebuild- Two people from each team will start a fire, using only 3 matches, a bolt of cedar and an axe, for speed.

Scoot Load- Two people from each team will load three logs onto a deck for speed.

Splitting- Three people from each team will quarter 9 bolts of wood for speed and accuracy.

Speed Chopping- Three people from each team will chop through an 8 x 8 cant held horizontally for speed.

Punch & Orange Drink
donated by

Burger
King

Stillwater Ave. Orono

Have it your way!